

It's important to be able to receive traffic and weather reports every where I go. To stop this service would allow broadcasters to monopolize these services. They do not have the right to stop satellite radio from transmitting these broadcasts. NAB would be would be loudly complaining if the FCC were to pass restrictions against them. You should not pass any attempt by NAB to prohibit these transmissions by XM Satellite Radio.